

Prototype "Cuda" canoe constructed in '05 "Santa Maria" canoe construction May/June 2011, to be a charity raffle prize for the KofC#1498 over Labor Day weekend 2011. (Named after the flagship of Christopher Columbus when he sailed to the new world in 1482)

April 29, 2011 – week 2
(24 hours of prep and work completed)

Forms in place for 17' canoe with three strips on each side

May 6, 2011 Week 3
Ready to close the hull with strips, prior to sanding

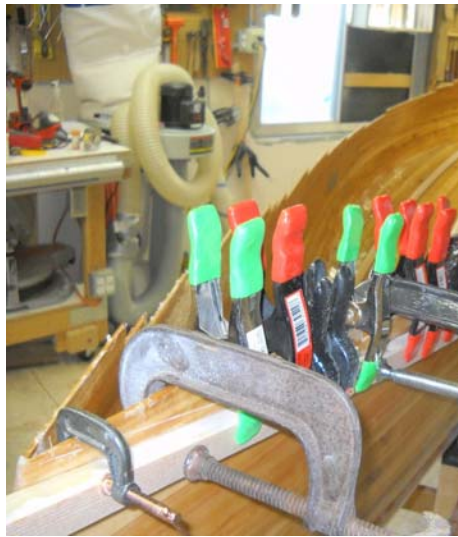

May 4, 2011 Week 3
70% of wood strips in place on the forms and being held by staples and glue

May 20, Week 5 (81 hours of work completed)

Outside of hull with fiberglass and epoxy, note the bare wood keel ready to be attached

May 30 Week 6 installing the gunwale hardwood framing ( 68 clamps )

Cutting the jagged edge from the gunwale prior to sanding flat

May 31, 2011 Week 7, first coat of varnish, missing the yoke/thwart at center beam

May 31, Week 6 ( 110 hours of work completed)

RAFFLE TICKET
Knights of Columbus 1498

VOID

Prize: 17 ft HANDCRAFTED CANOE
Cedar Strip & Fiberglass Construction

Drawing Saturday September 3, 2011 at 7:00 PM
8800 Poudre Canyon Blvd, Highlands Ranch CO 80128
*Winners will be present to win

VOID

RAFFLE ENTRY ONLY TICKET

RAFFLE TICKET : Prize Drawing on Sept 3 over the Labor Day Weekend.

Can also purchase chances at our website Knights1498.org using paypal