Grand Knight's Message-Andy Michaud

Brothers,

The past two months have been very busy and successful for the Knights.

I would like to thank Chris O'Reilly and all brothers who helped make our first pancake breakfast a huge success. Several families that helped support our pancake breakfast in the past have been looking forward to our breakfast since we left the high school, and commented that they had a wonderful time. We also gained new participants who had never attended the event before. Despite low attendance at mass, we had a successful event and made a good profit.

I would like to thank John Park and family for making the Valentine's Formal a fabulous event again this year. The silent auction lead by Gerry Lane was also a huge success. While we had fewer items and no "large ticket" items we ended up making over $3000 in the auction.

This next message, while going out to the entire council, is only directed to a few members. As the leader of any business, organization, or event you receive complements and complaints. I must let you all know that we received complaints last weekend. This is now the second knights sponsored event in which we had brothers act in a manner not worthy of being called a Knight of Columbus. The incidents that occurred at the Valentine's Formal made me feel both embarrassed and ashamed to be part of the Knights. We need to remember that our words and actions can either help propagate or damage our cause. Do we really want to challenge our image as Knights in the eyes of all who participate in our events? What do the Knights mean to you?

I know that we can do a better job of portraying what our organization is about.

Vivat Jesus,

Andy Michaud

Chaplain's Corner

Brother Knights!

Blessings to you and your household this Lent. I hope you take advantage of the various holy events that are being offered here at St. Mark. Not knowing when this will "go to print", I want to remind you of the Retreat Nights w/ Fr Mick and Mary Sellars-Malloy. I met them in person this morning (Friday) and they're great! So, hope to see you S,M,T,W nights at 6:30pm. Knights are hosting the Fish Fry next Friday after the Stations which start at 6:30 PM; celebration of communal Reconciliation is Tuesday March 6th at 6:30pm (...you know, that's the Service where you stand up in your pew and shout out your worst sin as LOUDLY as you can...)[just kidding]. Besides this Wednesday Retreat Night, all other Wednesday nights are Full-parish Faith Formation at 6:30pm for all levels, and lastly, but very importantly Morning Masses: Tue 9am, Wed 8am, Thur 7am. Make sure you take some quiet time for scripture reading and reflection. Keep this Lent as a holy time!

In Christ, Fr. Larry
