Grand Knight's Message-Andy Michaud

Brother Knights,

Thank you Chris O'Reilly for leading, as well as all those who helped, the pancake breakfast for the District meeting on Saturday, January 20th and the successful parish pancake breakfast on Sunday, January 21st! I look forward to many more "fun" raising events in the newly completed lower level.

Vivat Jesus,

Andy Michaud

Chaplain's Corner

Greetings Brother Knights!

I am certainly looking forward to the Valentine's Dinner & Dance! Always a good time is had by all! I want to express my deepest thanks to all who were involved with the celebration of Bill Reuter's life. Your support, prayers and attendance were very much appreciated by me, as your pastor, and by the family. Needless to say, they were amazed at the love that poured out of the St. Mark family. As her family leaves town, let's all keep our eyes and hearts open to Yvonne's needs. These will be some very tough times for her. And, as of this writing, the Knights have been responsible for shoveling the church sidewalks FOUR times. This is an incredible help and savings in expenditures. In speaking with Jennifer, the first two lot plowings totaled over $5,000! (I'm still waiting to see the cost for the third removal) Imagine if we had to pay for shoveling by the hour? I might have to take up a second collection just to cover the expenses of Mother Nature! Always keep the family of St. Mark in your prayers.

Your brother in Christ, Fr. Larry
