What Exactly Is The Polar Plunge

A Polar Plunge is a fundraising effort by groups & individuals who jump into a cold body of water in order to raise money. Each participant collects pledges from family, friends and businesses to raise money for Special Olympics Colorado. Then, on November 15, 2008, they 'take the plunge' into the cold water at Chatfield Reservoir to benefit Special Olympics athletes.

What Do I Have To Do To Participate?

Please register by filling out the registration form below, and sending it to Special Olympics Colorado prior to November 15. You can create your very own personal fundraising page at www.firstgiving.com/soco and track your pledge donations. Solicit contributions from family, friends, clubs, businesses, etc. Each "Polar Plunger" must raise a minimum of $75.

About Special Olympics Colorado

Since 1969, Special Olympics Colorado (SOCO) has been strengthening families, athletes and the very soul of our community through sports training and athletic competitions. Special Olympics Colorado provides year-round sports training and hosts over 80 competitions at the area and state level in 20 sports for over 8,500 athletes statewide. With a base of more than 6,000 volunteers, hundreds of hours are donated allowing SOCO to support athletes of all ages and abilities, allowing them to build athletic, learning and social skills. Participation with other athletes, non-disabled peers (Unified Sports® partners), coaches, sponsors and volunteers builds confidence and creates opportunities to participate as productive and respected members of society by increasing public awareness of the athletes' capabilities. There is no cost to participate in Special Olympics.
